Lights On Tampa is a new media art festival, which will begin at dusk and end at 11 p.m. both Friday, February 20th and Saturday, February 21st. Installations that are being commissioned are engaging and interactive, and will take place in Curtis Hixon Waterfront Park and Kiley Gardens. The event is fun, free, and a family-friendly environment, and the mission is to offer free access to artistic excellence. We thank you for considering volunteering for this event! For additional information, please visit lightsontampa.org or call us at (813) 274-8531.

Description of tasks attached; please note: volunteers will be standing and / or walking during shifts.
Volunteers may wear slacks or nice jeans, and please wear comfortable shoes
Volunteers will be asked to wear Lights On Tampa T-shirt during shift.

Interested in volunteering? Please email info@lightsontampa.org or call (813) 274-8531 and ask for Melissa
